

William Billiot

September 30, 2020

William Joseph “Butch” Billiot, 56, a Houma native, died Wednesday, Sept 30, peacefully in his home. A Celebration of life will be held on Thursday, October 8, from 6PM to 8PM at the Falgout Funeral Home in Houma.

He is survived by one sister Anna Billiot (Marty Dufrene), and a loving companion, Lynn Verrett . He is preceded in death by his parents; Marie Rosalie and Willis Joseph Billiot, and grandparents, Willie and Anna Mae Sanders and Louis Billiot and Marie Rosella “Susie” Billiot.

He was a member of United Houma Nation and loved by many.

Events

OCT Visitation 06:00PM - 08:00PM

8

Falgout Houma

211 Westside Blvd., Houma, LA, US, 70363

Comments

“ Where do I start, this last week has been one the hardest and most special times of my life. We talked about everything, Us getting married going on trips, me turning your motorcycle in to a trike, which you said I was crazy. We laughed together and cried together But the most important thing was we talked about GOD. We prayed together I sang you hymns (which you said my voice sucked) we said the Rosary. And you accepted God in your life. I am so proud of you. I will always Love you . You are forever in my Heart

Lynn Verrett - October 03, 2020 at 10:51 AM

“ I am honestly crushed to lose my "Big Brother" on 9/30/20 at 3:35 a.m. It was always me, Mama, & Butch for everything. Even when I would go to grocery store with Grandpaw, he would say "go get you a candy girl" I would come back with 2. He would say "oh no you not getting 2" I would tell him "no one's for Butch" and he would do the same for me. Now Mom is gone, Butch is gone, I'm all alone. It's the worst empty feeling anyone can imagine.

He was such a loving and caring person with a big heart. He would help everyone that needed a hand. I know you are with Mama now and she met you with open arms and gave you that awesome Mama hug. You are now at Peace and no more suffering, no more pain.

I will miss those days of sitting on your porch and talking for hours about anything and everything.

You are at your eternal home with Mama, I know that for sure. I Love You with all my heart. RIP now my Big Brother. RIP

Anna Billiot - October 02, 2020 at 09:05 PM